4) New Business/Unfinished Business

a. * 2021 Interns - Hiring (Moore)

Mr. Moore advised that interviews had been conducted with Zane State College students Jasmine Love and Kennedy Walls for the positions of Park District 2021 Interns. Ms. LaRue interviewed Kennedy Walls and Ms. McAdams interviewed Jasmine Love. Both candidates are studying in the Wildlife Conservation Program and are currently taking classes in GIS/GPS. Their coursework has, or will, include classes from the biological sciences such as botany, ecology, and zoology.

Ms. McAdams moved, Mr. Moore seconded, to proceed with job offers and hiring of Zane State College students Jasmine Love and Kennedy Walls as the Park District's 2021 interns, with a goal of up to 100 hours per intern, with the employment to be served during a six month period of time, occurring between May 15 and November 15, 2021. The intern positions will receive $12.00 per hour.

Motion carried by unanimous vote.

Discussion followed. Mr. Moore is to have a phone conversation(s) with the intern candidates, to present the job offers and discuss possible hours and scheduling. If the offers of employment are accepted by one or both, Mr. Moore will begin processing their applications and employment paperwork. Various potential intern tasks were discussed, including GIS mapping, property marking, virtual tour videos of parks and recreation locations.
